ARTHUR NATTANS, Druggist, Second and D sts. N. W.

A Clergyman, while residing in South America, as missionary, discovered a safe and simple remedy for the cure of Nervous Weakness. Early Decay, Disease of the Urinary and Seminal Organs, and the whole train of disorders brought on by baneful and vicious habits. Great numbers have been cured by this noble remedy. Prompted by a desire to benefit the afflicted and unfortunate, I will send the recipe for preparing and using this medicine, in a sealed envelope, to any one who needs it, Free of Charse.

INTERVIEW OF THE APACHES WITH . THE SECRETARY OF THE INTERIOR.—The members of General Howard's Indian delegation from Arizona had an interview with the Secretary of the Interior at 16 o'clock this morning. General Howard introduced the Indians, after which Santos, a representative of the Pinals, Arivapos and Tontos; Miquell, war chief of the Coyetero Apaches; Pedro and Es-kel-ta-sa-la, of the same band; Antonito, of the Pimos, and others made short speeches, in which they said they desired to keep peace with the whites, but wanted their reservation extended up the Gila river, so that they can get water. The Secretary of the Interior in response said the Great Father wants the Indians to live the same as the white people, and would like to have them go to the reservation set apart for them, (the Indian territory,) where be would help them build houses, give them stock and farming implements, and establish schools and churches. The Great Father will do all these things provided the Indians will only do as he desires them. At the conclusion of the interview the delegation shook hands with the Secre tary and General Waiker, and departed, apparently satisfied with the interview.

CLOSING THE FREEDMEN'S BUREAU .- The Secretary of War has issued a general order announcing that pursuant to the act of Congress, passed at the last session, the bureau of refugees, freedmen, and abandoned lands will be discontinued after the 30th inst. THE WEATHER, THE CROPS, No. VIENNA, VA., June 24, 122 this section of the country, and is proving very disastrous to the growing crops. The weather is very warm—unusually so—mercury yesterday, 98° in the shade. We have not had rain enough to lay the dust for two weeks, and everything seems to indicate a continuance of THE DROUGET.

The grass crop is nearly a total failure; in fact, there is scarcely any in this vicinity worth gathering; but as hay will be hay next winter, the ground will be pretty thoroughly gone over, as the job will be a light one. Oats are very short, and will be rather a light crop. Corn is looking GENERAL AUGUR has summoned all the post commanders in Texas to a military conference at San Antonio. It is supposed the frontier question will come up for discussion.

and will be rather a light crop. Corn is looking rather unpromising, having been plauted rather late and come up badly, and, with the ravages of the worms and the dry weather, it altogether makes the prospect for a crop look rather discouraging. However, if the season should prove favorable from this time out, the yield will probably be treatly fair. will probably be pretty fair. Early potatoes are looking very well—better than any other crop—but without plenty of rain soon, they will be small. The prospect for most kinds of fruit is very fair; cherries were very fine, but are now about gone. I had the pleasure of paying a visit, a few days since, to Major Williams' fruit orchard, and saw there some of the largest and most delicious cherries I ever saw or tasted. The major informed me that he had cut one through the center and measured the diameter. which measured 14 inches the longest way.
Politics are rather dull here just now. The conservatives are waiting the action of the Baltimore convention, before fully deciding whether to adopt the or some other costume to be decided upon at the convention. The republicans are pretty generally going for the Smoking Warrior; but a few are on the liberal platform, and perhaps a very few on the fence. Since writing the above, we have had a splen-did rain, which has caused nature to wear her most splendid garb, Trial of Stokes for the Murder of

WHAT THE FIRST SIX WITNESSES TESTIFY. At last the trial of Stokes, charged with the murder of Fisk, has begun in New York, and is progressing with more rapidity than was hoped for. The first witness examined yesterday was John G. Hill, who testified that he heard the shot fired, and saw Fisk after he was wounded; he then heard some one say, "That is the man who shot him." Witness recognized Stokes as the man so pointed out.

The second witness examined was Francis Curtiss, of Boston, who testified to hearing pistol shots; went immediately to the head of the stairs; found Fisk on the stairs; heard Fisk ask, "Will any one protect me from this assassin?" Witness went to Fisk, asking, "Is this you, Colonel?" Fisk responded, "I am shot." Witness helped him up stairs. Fisk pointed to his arm and abdomen, saying that he was shot in those places. Took Fisk to the receptionroom and sat on the lounge with him. Captain Byrne asked Fisk if Stokes was the man who shot him, and if he recognized him." Fisk answered "Yes, that is the man who shot me; take

The third witness was Peter Coughlin, a servant in the hotel, who testified to hearing shots, and seeing Stokes at the head of the stairs, and Fisk lying at the bottom, with two or three people assisting him up.

John Chamberlain testified that he was in Fisk's office in the opera house the day of the shoeting, and saw Stokes drive across the avenue at half-past three o'clock, and look in at the window where Fisk was standing; Stokes was driving in the direction of Mrs. Mansfield's. Patrick Hade, a servant at the hotel, testified to hearing shots, and seeing Fisk lying at the foot of the stairs.

Thomas Hart, doorman at the hotel, testified that Colonel Fisk entered the hotel at five minutes of 4 on the 6th of January; saw Fisk coming up stairs; saw Stokes on the landing, coming along in a stealthy manner, slightly stooping and walking lightly; Stokes walked to the head of the stairs; heard him say "Now I have got you;" he then drew a pistel, and, resting his hand on the bannister, fired one shot, at which Fisk staggered; Stokes then fired a second shot, and Fisk threw up both hands, exclaiming, "Oh, oh, ch, don't," and slid down to the bottom of the stairs; Stokes then turned toward the main staircase, and in passing witness said "Some-body has been shot there, and he ought to be attended to;" witness replied "Yes, and you are the man who shot him;" witness followed Stokes and saw him throw something away.

THE GENEVA BUSINESS IN PARLIAMENT-Granville's and Gladstone's Lips Unsealed at Last .- In the British House of Lords yesterday Lord Granville stated that he had been informed from Geneva that the tribunal no longer desired its deliberations to be kept secret, and then at some length gave a history of the proceedings before it since the first meeting of the 15th instant. When he made the announcement that the board was informed on Tuesday last that the United States would not further insist on the indirect claims before the tribunal, and that they might be excluded from all consideration, he was interrupted by cheers from all parts of the House. He concluded by stating that the motion for adjournment had been accordingly with drawn, and he hoped that the relations of the two great kindred nations would be barmonized and strengthened by the treaty of Washington. A similar statement was made in the House of Commons by Mr. Giadstone to that by Lord Granville in the Lords, and in conclusion he pronounced the controversy between the two nations ended. He was frequently interrupted by cheers, and when he had finished the applause was long continued. In reply to a question he said unequivocally that the United States could never revive the indirect claims under the treaty of Washington, and no such idea had either been intimated or signified.

A DIVORCED WIPE GETS HALF HER DE-BASED HUSBAND'S PROPERTY .- Husbands sometimes in making their wills overreach themselves in the matter of attempting to deprive their wives of their just share in property left by them. In June. 1867, Conrad and Margaret Hagaman were divorced by the cirreconciled shortly afterwards, and again separated in 1869, failing however, to have the divorce revoked. While in a state of separation the husband died and will d the greater portion of his property to St. Alphonsus church of this city, and made no provision for his wife. She resisted the will, and was by the orphans' court allowed one-half of the estate. An appeal was taken by the opposite party, which has resulted in the court of appeals affirming the decision of the orphans' court .- Baltimore American.

THE HUBBUB .- The Boston Coliseum yesterday contained about 20,000 people, besides the chorus. The programme was one of the best of the week. The French, English, and German bands were great features, and each received a double encore. The enthusiasm er their popular responses was intense. Madame Rudersdorff was the only vocal soloist in Handel's "Sampson." Straus was indisposed, but assumed his place, and led a waltz and polka, which created great enthusiasm. Horace Greeley is expected to-day. Gilmore has a benefit on Saturday evening.

FRENCHMEN EXCITED BY & PLAY .- "Ragabas," a play, which, upon its representation in Paris last February, gave rise to considerable excitement, the radicals alleging that it was a libellous caricature of the ultra republican party in general, and Gambetta in particular. was presented in Bordeaux Wednesday night, and again caused disorder. So violently did the audience manifest their disapproval of the performance that the gendarmes were compelled to interfere and arrest a number of persons, when order was restored.

GOLDSMITH MAID MAINTAILS HER REPU-TATION .- At the trotting at Prospect Park fair grounds, New York, yesterday, the purse of $5,000, mile heats, best three in five, was divided as follows: $2;250 to the first, $1,250 to the vided as follows: $2;250 to the first, $1,250 to the second, $1,000 to the third, and $500 to the fourth. The entries were Goldsmith Maid. Lucy, American Girl and Henry. American Girl was withdrawn, being lame. The Maid won the three heats easily, in 2.17 ½, 2.19, and 2.17 ½. The most exciting part of the race was the contest for the second position, between Lucy and Henry, which was successively taken at the end of each heat by Lucy.

A CUBAN TRAITOR .- Gonzales, the Cuban ader who surrendered to the Spanish troops a few days since, has been guilty of an action which will stamp him as a traitor of the deepest dye. Not content with deserting his comrades he betrayed them to the enemy, and caused a number of officers to be captured and executed Two other traitors have joined the Spanish army, and will no doubt hunt up their late companions for execution. A YOUNG LADY STABBED BY HER FATHER.

A Young Lady Stabbed by Her Father. Wm. J. Tomlinson, 517 Henry street, Brooklyn, stabbed his daughter Elizabeth with a case knife yesterday, inflicting wounds of a dangerous character. The alicged cause is the daughter's persistence in receiving the attentions of gentlemen against her father's will. The young lady was playing the piano at the time. Her father was arrested and locked up. William B. Wentworth, a Boston young meeting of the behald to-day was the most important yet held in Geneva, and was signal-argument. How much progret has been made to the solution of the many din littles of this this small fact. It of course follows the solution is this small fact. It of course follows the land is now fully in court, and it may be larged as an equally necessary consequence that ken as an equally necessary consequence that he famous indirect claims, if not distinctly with the way, are so far neutralized by the agreement of either side that they are of either side that they are practically out of court. The difficulty in regard to the indirect claims was overcome before the English agent consented to lodge his argument. THE EXACT POINT of this solution is that each of the arbitrators shall give a written opinion on the indirect claims, which will thus be formally shut out. It has already been a matter of understanding that several members of the court held views inconsistent with the maintenance of the indirect claims, but it becomes certain that, with the written opinion of the five arbitrators on record, it would be on this point

THE INDESOR CLAIMS FORMALLY RULED OUT

GENEVA, Jose OF COURT.

A FORMAL AND POSIT IVE VERDICT against the United States, ruling out by adjudiagainst the United States, that the very presen-cation that part of the case to the very presencation that part of the case to the very presen-tation of which England objected. No fair opposition could be made on the part of the United States to adjudication on this point pre-vious to the presentation of the English argu-ments, because it is the opinion of the American counsel that said argument is, after all, a part which she may present or not, as she chooses. In short, she is and has been in court all the time, and any judgment made now would be fully valid. This important point would have been settled to day but for a technical point in regard to the lodg ng of the written opinions of the judges. For this purpose another delay of 24 hours was therefore agreed upon, and the court

Both Sides Content with the Issue Later .- GENEVA, June 27 .- The judgment of the court on the indirect claims is not to be given to morrow, but is given already, the tri-bunal having disposed of the indirect claims dispute. Thus everything is most definitely and satisfactorily settled. The arbitration goes on, and both sides are content with the issue. What the London Papers Say.

LONDON, June 28.—The statements of Gran-ville and Gladstone in Parliament last night announcing the decision of the tribunal of arbitra tion on the indirect claims form the subjects of the leading editorial articles of all the London morning journals. The Times says the decision is eminently satisfactory. All Englishmen and Americans ought to be grateful to the arbitrators, who have proved themselves true benefactors of both England and America. The man who rescued America from discredit is Charles Francis Adams. The News says the result of the indirect claims contreversey is a great triumph for the firmness and patience of the British Ministry. Society has now an example for the employment of a peaceful tribunal, not to complete but to supersede the work of the sword. The News also says Mr. Schenck deserves credit for his course during the negotiations between the two governments. Other morning papers likewise rejoice over the manner in which the disputes between the two governments have been settled.

NEW YORK, June 28.—The withdrawal of Judge McCunn from his trial at Albany is a subject of interest among lawyers. McCunn has resumed his place on the bench of the su-preme court, and his counsel say that his case must be passed upon by the court of appeals if adversely decided at Albany. They claim that the extraordinary rulings of the senate forced them to retire. A letter of one of McCunn's receivers, very damaging to the defence, was found among certain papers, and its production surprised McCunn, and, it is said, moved him to withdraw. A RAGGED BOY named John O'Keefe, who sells papers before and after school bours, was yesterday adjudged the best out of nine who were examined for the naval cadetship in Congressman Roberts' dis-

It is stated that the McHenry party, after obtaining possession of Erie, will issue reorganization bonds amounting to about $10,000,000, and then consolidate the Atlantic and Great Western and the Erie under one management. THE NEXT PRESIDENT-OF BRIE.

Mr. McHenry, the English banker, states that he has come here to advance the interests of the Atlantic and Great Western Railway by aiding in the formation of a new board of directors of the Eric Railroad, and, if possible, place Eric ander full control of the former company. General McClellan and S. M. Barlow were closeted with Mr. McHeury during the day. It is generally believed that either General Sickles or General McClellan will be the next president of Erie. Gould is apparently not thought of. TAKING THE PLACE OF STRIKERS.

Numbers of new men have taken the places the striking stablemen at the horse-car stables, and police guard the stables to prevent the strikers assaulting them. THE STOKES TRIAL was resumed this morning. There was a large crowd present, including many ladies. John P. Redmond, hall boy at the hotel, testified that Fisk asked him if Mrs. Morse or her daughter were in, and followed him up a few steps he heard a noise, and looking up saw Stokes at the top of the stairs, whom witness saw enter the totel about ten minutes previous. Stokes was resting his left elbow on the banister, with his right hand raised with a pistol in it; Stokes fired two shots; Fisk staggered back, leaning against the wall; Fisk was helped up stairs; witness saw Fisk identify Stokes as the man who shot him. Richard Wandell testified that he was a sporting man; that he was standing at the main entrance of the hotel the day of the shooting; saw Stokes coming at a smart pace, between a run and a walk, attracting attention of witness by running against a lady; saw Stokes go in at the ladies' entrance; about five or ten minutes after Fisk's carriage came down Broadway; Fisk got out and went into the hotel by the ladies' en-trance; did not hear the shots, but heard about the murder shortly after, and saw Stokes in the hands of the officers. The cross-examination elicited nothing additional. Mexico.

A MONSTER ICEBERG-A Rare Chance Enterprising Ice Dealers.—According to a St. Johns letter there is an iceberg two thousand miles long and from fifty to two hundred miles broad, on its way down to us from Baffin's Bay. The writer states that since the early part of last January enormous fields of ice have been passing the shores of Nawfounding in the states. passing the shores of Newfoundland in almost a continuous stream. The thickness of this field of ice is from twenty to thirty feet. The distance between Baffin's Bay, where the ice fields are formed, and the waters of the Gult Stream, are formed, and the waters of the Gult Stream, where the masses are dissolved, is from fifteen hundred to two thousand miles. Some old navigators are of opinion that the route to Europe will be unusually dangerous this summer on account of the southward movements of these immense fields. In case it reaches our harbor, tt is supposed our wide-awake ice dealers will at once seize it and convert it into genuine "Rockland Lake." If it is to come let it by all means come quickly, with grateful relief to the broiling heat of the last week.—N. Y. Standard.

A LITTLE GIRL KILLED BY A BRUTE .- MATgaret McCarty, a little girl 14 years of age, of 16% Hamilton street, visited her aunt, a Mrs. Sanderson, at 396 Water street, on the 27th ult., and was left by her to watch the cooking of some fish for supper. One of the bearders, Wm. Gordon, was taking some of it from the pan with his hand, and she pushed his arm away. The brute then struck her a violent blow on the neck. She was taken to her home, and was seck. She was taken to her home, and was confined to her bed until her death, which took place yesterday. A post-mortem by Dr. Cushman showed that the immediate cause of death was cerebro-spinal meningitis, but he was una-ble to say that it was caused by violence. Gor-dop, who has been in custody since the occurrence, will be detained to await the action of Coroner Schirmer .- N. Y. Sun, 27th. DEATH FROM A FRAGMENT OF Shell .- James O'Neill, ex-member of the New York Assembly from the ninth ward, and chief clerk of the excise board, came to his death in a manner as singular as it was painful. The do tors in making a post-mortem examination found every organ in the healthiest condition, but dis-covered, while making a close examination of the stomach, that the intestines had been cut by a small bit of eyster shell, and their contents allowed to escape through the opening. The shell had evidently been in the stomach but a short time, and had, no doubt, been unconsciously swallowed by Mr. O'Neill while taking his even ing lunch. A WORKINGMAN in New York urges the organization of an association of married men, and for the following reasons: "I am a workingman and a married man, and think it about time that we formed a married men's association to protect us from the young men that belong to the unions. As a body they are the poorest workmen at the trades. They don't care much about work, but we have wives and families, and they must be provided for. Let us call a meeting for that purpose, and it will be well at-tended, and act for ourselves."

MARRIAGE AND DIVORCE SIMPLIFIED IN JAPAN.—The marriage ceremony in Japan consists of the man and woman drinking wine from the same cup. Divorce is not much more elaborate than marriage. The husband gives the wife a piece of paper with a few lines of characters on it and the knot is untied. A translation of the lines is given by a recent correspondent as follows: "I no likee you. I thinkee you likee other man more better. I give you piecee a paper. You can go. Goodee by."

THE LABOR AGITATION in New York appears to be no nearer an end than it was two menths ago, and both sides yesterday exhibited determined firmness of purpose. It is now de-nied that the citizens' association has offered to mediate between the contestants. There have been revived the strikes of the upholsterers, cabinet makers and carpenters in several shops owing to misunderstandings. The men of Howe's sewing machine factory voted yesterday to continue the strike. INSERRECTION IN A STATE'S PRISON .- Up-marched into the prison enclosure and the in-surrection quelled. Nearly two hundred of the leading insurrectionists were placed in cells, and will be fed on bread and water until sufficiently punished. SOMETHING ABOUT ENGLISH GIRLS .- Taine says some very nice things about the freshness and modesty of the English galls, and one thing especially that all American mothers should hear, which is as follows: "They love and endure exercise like their brothers; with flowing locks, at six years, they ride on horseback and
